

WORKING TOGETHER

to reduce opioid overdoses and drug-related deaths

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

WEXNER MEDICAL CENTER

The Ohio State University Wexner Medical Center has joined Ohio's network of opioid education and naloxone distribution programs in partnership with Project DAWN (Deaths Avoided With Naloxone).

Beginning Nov. 1, Ohio State will have naloxone (NARCAN) kits available to the public at no cost at our hospital pharmacy locations.

A prescription is not necessary to receive training or to pick up the medication.

For program locations and information, visit go.osu.edu/projectdawn.
